

Sharon Parsley, J.D., M.B.A., CHC, CHRC
(954) 809-4358

Sharon Parsley, President & Managing Director of Quest, is a veteran health law attorney and has served in Chief Compliance Officer roles for a non-profit health system and a prominent academic medical center. She also served in a Divisional Compliance Officer role for a for-profit hospital operator. Sharon is admitted to practice law in Florida, Ohio and Kentucky, and is a proud two-time graduate of Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Sharon was recognized as one of nine Ohio “Rising Stars in Health Law” in 2009. She is a Kentucky Colonel, a member of the American Health Lawyers Association, Florida and Ohio Bar Associations, Health Care Compliance Association and is Certified in Health Care Compliance (CHC) and Health Care Research Compliance (CHRC).

Select services that Quest offers include:

- Interim Compliance Leadership Resource Solutions
- Compliance Program Effectiveness Reviews
- Development and Deployment of Effective Training for Boards, Board Committees, In-House Investigators, and Personnel
- Work Plan Development
- Development of Compliance Program Effectiveness and Efficiency Metrics
- Audit Lifecycle Support
- Physician Contracting Process Reviews
- Mentorship and Coaching of New and Emerging Compliance Leaders
- Service as a Board Engaged Compliance Expert